OBAFEMI AWOLOWO UNIVERSITY, ILE-IFE, NIGERIA
FACULTY OF ADMINISTRATION
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Name of Examination:	2018/2019 Rain Semester
Subject and Title of Paper:	PAD 306 Traditional Administrative System in Nigeria
Instruction:	Answer three questions in all and at least one question from each section.
Time Allowed:	2 hours

Section A

1a. There are traditional processes, procedures, norms and ways established by customs that signifies how marriages, naming ceremonies, coronation of traditional rulers etc. are carried out. With practical illustration based on your group presentation, describe comprehensively how these ceremonies are carried out.

b. List and briefly explain the organisation of the Kanem-Bornu Empire

Section B

3. Drawing from two Nigerian societies, make recommendations on strengthening democracy in Nigeria.

4. Discuss the underlying fallacies about the relationship between traditional and modern administration societies and values.

Section C

5. Give a lucid account of the Yoruba traditional system during the pre-colonial period in Nigeria.

6. In what ways do traditional rulers interfere in the corporate existence of national politics?

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
FACULTY OF ADMINISTRATION
OBAFEMI AWOLOWO UNIVERSITY, ILE IFE

NAME OF EXAMINATION: RAIN SEMESTER EXAMINATION, 2013/2014

SUBJECT AND TITLE OF PAPER: PAD 306/ TRADITIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE SYSTEM IN NIGERIA

INSTRUCTIONS: ANSWER QUESTION ONE (1) AND TWO OTHER (2) QUESTIONS

TIME ALLOWED: TWO HOURS . PAY ATTENTION TO WORDS IN ITALICS.

1. a) Indicate and summarise your PAD 306 group assignment.
   b) Appraise the power of traditional rulers along Nigeria's "Constitutional Timeline" since colonial period.
   c) Why is the study of Traditional Administrative System (TAS) important in a modern time?

2. Provide a clear recommendation on how to have good governance in Nigeria through your knowledge of traditional administrative values and institutions. Draw apposite illustrations from two Nigerian traditional societies of your choice.

3. As a representative of traditional rulers in the Nigerian National Assembly, thoroughly argue for and against the pursuit for the "Constitutional recognition of National Council of Traditional Rulers" in Nigeria.

4. Some scholars' views about the relationship between traditional societies/institutions and modern societies/institutions are said to be fallacious. State some of these views and the fallacy that is embedded in each of them.

5. Espouse a comparative analysis of two traditional administrative societies in Nigeria with special references to the following:
   a. Administrative Institutions b. Political System c. Colonial Policy of Indirect Rule; and d. Means of Livelihood.

OBAFEMI AWOLOWO UNIVERSITY, ILE-IFE, NIGERIA
FACULTY OF ADMINISTRATION
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Name of Examination: 2019/2020 Rain Semester

Subject and Title of Paper: PAD 306 Traditional Administrative System in Nigeria

Instruction: Answer three questions in all and at least one question from each section.

Time Allowed: 2 hours

Section A

1. There are traditional processes, procedures, norms and ways established by customs that signifies how marriages, naming ceremonies, coronation of traditional rulers, conflict resolution etc. are carried out. With practical illustration based on your group presentation, describe comprehensively how these ceremonies are carried out.
2. Comprehensively discuss the organisation of indigenous traditional institutions in the Kanem-Bornu Empire.
3. The structural organisation of Igbo traditional system of government was based on the different indigenous institutions that plays key important roles in the administration of the societies. Outline and discuss roles of these institutions in the governance of traditional Igbo societies.
4. The Hausa land, before 1804, was a federation, that developed certain ties which bound them together. Discuss the institutions of traditional system of government that made the Hausa States a symbol of political and economic power.
5. Creation of Fulani caliphate and conquest of the Hausa states in Northern Nigeria before colonisation of Nigeria was connected to religious, political, economic and social factors, discuss.

Section B

6. Enumerate and discuss at least three traditional political institutions in Ilawe-Ekiti that handled the legislative and executive functions, maintenance of internal security, the role of women in the administration of Ilawe-Ekiti socio-cultural and economic development.
7. The rejuvenated traditional institutions have not been well integrated in the modern state institutions of governance in Nigeria. Assess the veracity of this assertion.
8. Synergy of efforts between Yoruba traditional political institution and the modern-day state apparatus of government has been markedly productive. Discuss.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

FACULTY OF ADMINISTRATION

OBAFEMI AWOLOWO UNIVERSITY, ILE-IFE

Name of Examination: Rain Semester Examination, 2015/2016 Session

Subject and Title of Paper: PAD 306- TRADITIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE SYSTEM IN NIGERIA

Instructions: Answer THREE Questions in all, at least one(1) Question from each section.

Time: 2hours

Section A

1. Radical scholars on African government and politics have argued that if military rule is an ulcer, colonialism is a cancer. Discuss.

2. Using Oyo empire as a template, examine the system of government in Nigeria pre-colonial period.

3. From the perspective of Walter Rodney, clearly examine the contributions of colonialism to the underdevelopment of Africa.

Section B

4. Of what relevance are traditional rulers to the corporate existence of any democratic society?

5. How do the traditional rulers maintained their domains before colonization in Nigeria?

6. Give lucid disparities among the Hausa, Yoruba and Igbo traditional political systems during pre-colonial administration in Nigeria.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
FACULTY OF ADMINISTRATION
OBAFEMI AWOLOWO UNIVERSITY, ILE IFE

NAME OF EXAMINATION: RAIN SEMESTER EXAMINATION, 2013/2014

SUBJECT AND TITLE OF PAPER: PAD 306/ TRADITIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE SYSTEM IN NIGERIA

INSTRUCTIONS: ANSWER QUESTION ONE (1) AND TWO OTHER (2) QUESTIONS ——

TIME ALLOWED: TWO HOURS . PAY ATTENTION TO WORDS IN ITALICS.

1. a) Indicate and summarise your PAD 306 group assignment.
   b) Appraise the power of traditional rulers along Nigeria's "Constitutional Timeline" since colonial period.
   c) Why is the study of Traditional Administrative System (TAS) important in a modern time?

2. Provide a clear recommendation on how to have good governance in Nigeria through your knowledge of traditional administrative values and institutions. Draw apposite illustrations from two Nigerian traditional societies of your choice.

3. As a representative of traditional rulers in the Nigerian National Assembly, thoroughly argue for and against the pursuit for the "Constitutional recognition of National Council of Traditional Rulers" in Nigeria.

4. Some scholars' views about the relationship between traditional societies/institutions and modern societies/institutions are said to be fallacious. State some of these views and the fallacy that is embedded in each of them.

5. Espouse a comparative analysis of two traditional administrative societies in Nigeria with special references to the following:
   a. Administrative Institutions b. Political System c. Colonial Policy of Indirect Rule; and d. Means of Livelihood.